

About our Firm

Mr. Christensen has represented injured and disabled people in Georgia for over 30 years. He has been committed to providing legal representation to individuals in social security disability cases. His years of experience have made him a well known, well respected attorney in these fields. He has successfully represented thousands of individuals. Mr. Christensen has dedicated himself to helping injured individuals stand up against the Social Security Administration as well as insurance professionals. He believes that all injured parties deserve a swift and fair resolution of their problem. He is an advocate for the disabled.

Having received his undergraduate degree in philosophy from the Athenaeum of Ohio, Mr. Christensen then went on to graduate from Emory University School of Law in 1976. At that time he began his own law practice in the Atlanta area. He has practiced in Cobb County since 1982.

He has written and published numerous articles relating to social security disability and workers' compensation law for Georgia and national legal publications. His years of experience have made him a popular speaker and writer on social security disability and workers' compensation topics. He has spoken at both Georgia and national continuing legal education seminars. He has participated in seminar presentations for medical providers, members of the Bar, and other organizations. In addition, Mr. Christensen is a certified mediator and has helped to settle innumerable workers' compensation cases through mediation during the past ten years.

Professional organizations Mr. Christensen is a member of include the Georgia Bar Association, Cobb County Bar Association, National Organization of Social Security Claimants' Representatives (NOSSCR), the Workers' Compensation Section of the American and Georgia Bar, and the Georgia Trial Lawyers Association.

Mr. Christensen and his firm are knowledgeable and experienced. They are genuinely concerned about YOUR needs and would appreciate the opportunity to assist you to sort out your claim, understand your individual rights, and win your case!